Court finds IBM guilty of monopolistic practices

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — International Business Machines Corp., the world's largest computer maker, was found guilty in federal court today of monopolistic business practices and was ordered to pay a competitor $332.5 million in damages.

The smaller concern, Telex Corp. of Tulsa, in turn was ordered to pay IBM $21.9 million in damages for stealing IBM trade secrets.

At IBM headquarters in Armonk, N.Y., a spokesman said the company planned to appeal the decision.

Telex spokesmen said their company was pleased with the decision. They said Telex planned to "vigorously prosecute" the overseas side of the case, which had been severed from domestic competitive issues.

U.S. District Court Judge A. Sherman Christensen, who heard arguments in the huge and complicated case for nearly two months earlier this year, also ordered IBM to begin a series of actions to break up its hold on the computer accessory market.

The securities of both IBM and Telex were delayed in opening on stock exchanges in New York as Wall Street received news of Christensen's ruling.

The struggle over competition in the electronic data processing industry dates back many years.

Telex began the case which led to today's ruling with a $1.2 billion suit accusing IBM of monopolistic practices. IBM responded with a suit charging Telex with obtaining trade secrets by hiring former IBM engineers.

Christensen's ruling, mailed from his Salt Lake City office and released at the court where the case was heard, said IBM "is enjoined from adopting, implementing or carrying out predatory pricing, leasing or other acts, practices or strategies with intent to obtain or maintain a monopoly in the market...."

Christensen's ruling was stayed pending appeal or posttrial motions.

He instructed IBM to disclose certain design information when it makes an announcement regarding an electronic data processing product, or releases such a product.

IBM was also ordered to price a number of its products separately, rather than using "single or bundled" pricing for computer equipment. Telex had argued that IBM had been pricing the equipment in ways designed to freeze out competition.

Soil care sampled

The Scott County standard soil survey officially began Friday with the mapping of the first acre on this field in Sikeston. K. M. Streeter of Bell City, left, chairman of the Scott County Soil and Water Conservation District, and Jerry T. Harlow of Benton, district conservation agent, demonstrate a soil sampling device that takes cores of soil to a five- foot depth, or greater if the soil scientists need more information. The survey will be used to check the physical characteristics of soil to determine its best use. (Daily standard photo by Tim Ludwig)

Stoddard fair to open tonight

DEXTER — Jaycee Stoddard County Fair officially gets underway today at 6 p.m. with the grand parade which will make its way along Stoddard Street.

The parade, which kicks off the six- day event, will be comprised of bands from the surrounding area, plus a number of floats, old and new cars, fire trucks and other vehicles.

Susan Yvonne Hathaway of Bernie, crowned Miss Stoddard County Saturday night, will lead the parade along with LaDonna Albright of Bernie, 4, Little Miss Stoddard County.

Miss Hathaway, 17, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hathaway. Her court includes first attendant Sheila Williams, 17, of Dexter and second attendant Thea Glendenning of Dexter, 17.

Miss Albright is the four-year- old daughter of Mrs. Jeanette Albright. Her attendants are Angela Rogers 15, of Dexter and Patricia Catherine Stephens, 4, of Bernie.

In today's parade, cash awards will be presented for the top three float entries, with $100 going to the first place winner, $50 to the runner- up and $25 to the third place entry.

Tuesday's activities will be highlighted by home economics and 4-H displays and hog judging. Between 11 a.m. and 5 p.m. all 4-H and home economics entries will be accepted for display on the fair grounds, with the Jaycee Wives in charge.

Judging of swine will begin at 7 p.m. and will be followed by the barrow carcass show at 7:30 p.m. The Future Farmers of America Pig Scramble will follow the judging.

Country entertainment highlights Wednesday evening's activities when Grand Old Opry Star David Houston and his band perform two shows at 7:30 p.m. and 9:30 p.m. Also on the program will be Arlene Harden, Columbia Records recording artist.

All field crop entries will be accepted after 8:30 a.m. Wednesday and judging of home economis exhibits will take place that day.

Cattle judging will begin at 7 p.m. Thursday, and the third annual Jaycee fat steer sale will follow at 8:30 p.m. to close the evening.

A $1,000 prize will be awarded Friday to the winner of the tractor- pulling contest.

Saturday is homecoming day, with all exhibits to open to the public at 9 a.m. Saturday afternoon is kid's day with free admission from 1 to 5 p.m. Pony pulling commences at 7:30 a.m. and state pony pull rules will be observed.

The carnival midway will be open every day throughout the week.

Miss Stoddard County

Susan Yvonne Hathaway, 17, of Bernie, center, captured the title of Miss Stoddard County at Saturday night's pageant in the Dexter High School auditorium. Thea Glendenning, 17, of Dexter, left, was selected as second attendant and Sheila Williams, 17, of Dexter was named first attendant. Miss Hathaway is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hathaway of Bernie. See additional picture on page 7.

Fireman arrested on nine charges

A Sikeston fireman was arrested on nine charges Saturday night after he allegedly fought with a police officer while being taken into custody for assault and battery on his wife.

Police said officer John Blankenbeker was arresting David Allen Wyatt, 27, of 411 Crowe Place after Wyatt's wife signed a complaint charging him with assault and battery.

Blankenbeker said Wyatt swore at him, stabbed him with the stick pin on his fire department badge, ripped the shirt of his police uniform, hit him with his fist and threatened to kill him before Blankenbeker could subdue him.

Wyatt was charged with assault and battery, resisting arrest, three counts of disorderly conduct, destroying private property, peace disturbance, assaulting a police officer and felonious assault.

He was released on $590 bond.

Other arrests announced today included:

Gene T. Shaw, Route Two, driving while intoxicated; Alfred L. Gregory, 172 Lee, careless and imprudent driving; Steve Franklin Melton, 1505 E. Gladys, careless and imprudent driving, no city sticker and no vehicle registration, Harry W. Mayabb of East Prairie, driving while intoxicated, carrying a concealed weapon and supplying liquor to minors.

James Dozier, Route Two, peace disturbance and public intoxication; Scottie Ruben Sain, 3 Kirkwood Drive, assault and battery; James Edward Helmes Jr., 1331 W. Murray Lane, discharging fireworks in the city; Bruce Joseph Simpson, 419 Kendall, public intoxication; Steven Christopher Waters, 105 W. Salcedo, careless and imprudent driving; Charles D. Gaddis, 326 Kendall, public

2 P'ville policemen quit

PORTAGEVILLE — Two veteran officers, Roy Hurley and Andy Knotts, resigned Sunday from the city police force. Hurley had been an officer for six years and Knotts had been on the force for three years.

Mayor Barry Richardson today said he didn't know their reasons for resigning as he had not talked with the men. However, he said the officers had been under fire recently for failure to cite motorists for violating speed limits and stop sign regulations.

Richardson said he had received numerous complaints from citizens about speeders and persons ignoring stop signs and not one arrest had been made since May on these violations.

Also, Richardson said, the officers had declined to take law enforcement training which the council had suggested to upgrade the department.

The council will meet tonight to review applications and expect to fill the vacancies soon.

Meat stolen from freezer

Police investigated four thefts over the weekend, including the theft of meat from a home freezer.

Police said thieves broke into the Elmer Rodgers home, 603 Branum, between 5 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. Sunday.

Taken were 30 to 50 pounds of meat from a freezer located in the garage and part of a coin collection valued at around $200. The thieves apparently entered the house through the front door, according to police.

Two rings and 10 Kennedy half dollars were reported stolen Friday from the Katie Oglin home, 322 Westgate.

Police said the thieves apparently entered the house through a back window. One ring was valued at $175 and the value of the other was unknown.

Thieves entered Sand Lounge, 1129 W. Malone Ave., sometime between 1:30 a.m. and 9 a.m. Saturday and took $70 in change, 117 packs of cigarettes and five cases of beer valued at $4.55 a case.

Police said entry was gained by forcing open the door.

Someone apparently entered the Ray Kettles home, 229 W. Kathleen, between 10 p.m. Saturday and 10:45 p.m. Sunday, taking a purse with 50 cents in change.

Accident victim dies

PUXICO — Jerry Rogers, 32, of Puxico died at 8:40 a.m. Saturday at Lucy Lee Hospital in Poplar Bluff as a result of injuries sustained in a head- on collision Thursday night near Puxico.

Another Puxico man, David Russell Willson, 23, died instantly in the accident at 7:45 p.m. Thursday when his car crossed the center line and collided with a pickup truck driven by Rogers six miles north of Puxico on HIghway 51.

Rogers was born in 1941. He was a member of the Community Church of Christ near Lowndes and was co-owner and operator of a sheet metal company in Puxico.

He was married to the former Sharon Lankford, who survives. His mother died 11 years ago in a car accident in California.

Other survivors include five children, Jerry Jr., Rocky, Sherri, Jenny and Kathleen Rogers of the home; six sisters, Evelyn Slaughter of St. Charles, Shirley Propst, Beverly Pitman and Nancy Pitman of Advance and Martha and Nellie Rogers of Dexter; four brothers, Dean Rogers of Puxico, Neil and Noah Rogers of Dexter and David Rogers, stationed in the armed forces in Mississippi; and his father and stepmother, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Rogers of Dexter.

Services are scheduled at 2 p.m. Tuesday in Community Church of Christ near Lowndes. Jack and Lewis Rogers of Dexter, uncles of the deceased, will officiate.

The body is at Gish, Bowles and Coder Funeral Home in Greenville where friends may call until noon Tuesday.

Burial will be in the church cemetery.

The Kansas Power and Light Company reports an interesting development in the coal industry. In a company publication it was said that, "Scientists at the U.S. Bureau of Mines' Coal Research Center are looking for ways to use fly ash, the waste product of coal- fired boilers. Some 20 millions tons of fly ash accumulate every year, largely from electric power generation. One use holds promise of making winter driving safer. Preliminary tests indicate that when about two pounds of fly ash are formulated with tire tread rubber, traction and skid resistance on icy roads are improved, yet the tire's wear properties are not impaired."

No Republican could have conceived a program that did as much to tear the Democrats apart as we ourselves."

According to U. S. News & World Report, one problem for Sen. Sam Ervin, jr., chairman of the Senate Watergate committee, is that a member of his staff says that a rising proportion of the senator's mail is critical of him or the committee -- 1 in every 3 or 4 letters, compared to 1 in 8 in earlier stages of the hearings. His associates fear damage in his re-election battle next year.

Ervin is reported shocked that many of his constituents in North Carolina do not approve of his role in the Watergate probe. Ervin, who is 76, faces probable primary opposition next year from several leading Democrats. And waiting in the wings is GOP Rep. Wilmer "Vinegar Bend" Mizell, eager to become the state's second GOP senator.

That's politics -- and a rude awakening.

MORE THAN NOTHING BUT CONGRESS' RECORD 'FOR' NIXON IS NIL

Congress, President Nixon has charged, is so preoccupied with Watergate that it is getting nothing done. "Legislation vital to your health and well-being sits unattended on the congressional calendar," the President complained in televised speech of Aug. 15.

Of course, it is a good political pitch almost always employed by U. S. presidents against congresses dominated by the opposite party. Harry Truman used it, won re-election in 1948 on his charges of a "do-nothing Congress." President Eisenhower also found comparable complaints useful.

However, according to a survey by Congressional Quarter, Mr. Nixon's charge doesn't quite hold up. Actually, the study shows, the record of the 93rd Congress compares quite favorably — perhaps even better than many — with other sessions of the past in attendance, hours in session, committee reports, rollcall votes, and number of important bills enacted or approved by both houses.

Had the President complained that his own programs had suffered in this Congress, he would have had valid grounds, however, for little he has requested has been done. But if Mr. Nixon's record with Congress is not good, neither is Congress' record with the White House. To illustrate—

Of all the measures urged by the President when Congress convened three years ago — those dealing with inflation, urban decay, poverty, and all the rest — only one was passed; of his six "major goals," Congress enacted only one, revenue sharing. And even that has been in dispute ever since.

On all the measures urged by the President when Congress convened three years ago — those dealing with inflation, urban decay, poverty, and all the rest — only one was passed; of his six "major goals," Congress enacted only one, revenue sharing. And even that has been in dispute ever since.

On the other hand, Mr. Nixon has vetoed four major measures approved by both houses of this Congress, the last one being the minimum pay bill, and at least two more are almost certain to be vetoed — those proscribing presidential power to use troops abroad, and to prohibit a president from impounding funds appropriated by Congress for specific purposes.

In addition, two more congressional pets are likely to be vetoed, one dealing with no-fault insurance, the other requiring Senatorial approval of future directors and deputy directors of the Office of Management and Budget.

So, if the President should change his phrasing,charge that this is a "do- nothing- for - Nixon" Congress, he would be quite within the politically - accepted right. But for him to charge that the Congress is too preoccupied with Watergate to do anything — well, if nothing more, this session has done more to exercise the presidential veto than any other in many years.

A FEW AFFECTED MILLIONS

When a strike was called by the Teamsters Union at St. Louis because St. Louis daily newspapers refused to put on help they claim is no longer needed because of use of automatic equipment, an estimated million or more prople were affected adversely.

We understand that there were only 25 or 30 jobs involved.

Meantime, employees of the two St. Louis dailies, their hundreds of distribution agents here and elsewhere, their suppliers, the drivers of delivery trucks and countless others lost money daily because of the actions of less than a half hundred persons.

In addition, a million or more people were deprived of their daily newspapers.

It is't right that so few people can inconvenience so many and cost them money.

BRICK IS NO WATER SAVER IN A TOILET

An expert who has, uh, looked deeply into the situation has some sobering news for those thousands — perhaps millions? — of people who are keeping bricks in their bathrooms in the mistaken notion that they are helping the cause of conservation.

Placing a brick into a toilet tank to save water is not only "ridiculous" but "is a pure case of environmental emotionalism," states Fred E. Schmuck, chairman of the board of the association of Industry Manufacturers (Plumbing- Cooling - Heating - Piping). He is also president of Fluidmaster, Inc., a company that makes some of the mechanism that shares the space with the bricks.

Schumuck's blast is inspired by the news that the City Council of Concord, Calif., is considering purchasing and distributing 50,000 bricks. Last December, Cherry Hill, N.J., actually did purchase 34,000 bricks in the hope of saving 34 million gallons of water annually.

Theoretically, a brick should save a volume of water equal to its displacement. But in the actual operation of a tank, explains Schmuck, the stopper reseats and stops the flushing action with two to three inches of water remaining.

This water will keep a horizontally placed brick continuously submerged and will cover over 30 per cent of a vertically placed brick. In order to displace water which actually flushes, any object placed in the tank must be over the minimum drainage level.

Thus a horizontal brick does no good at all and the savings from a vertical brick are very minimal.

Much better than a brick, says Schmuck, is a tall, weighed plastic bottle standing in the tank. Better still is lowering the upper water level an inch or two by bending the float ball downward or by installing an adjustable ballcock.

Lowering the water level by two inches, which does not adversely affect flushing, results in over five times the water savings than from a standing brick — over 20 gallons a day for an average family.

This, notes Schmuck, will just about counter the water wasted by a leaky faucet or by running the dishwasher with only half a load.

LOOK OUT FOR NEW PERIL: RAIN THEFT!

International crises of the future may be set off by "environmental aggression," warns Maurice S. Strong, head of the United Nations' recently established Environmental Program.

Rainmaking by seeding clouds with silver iodide is already feasible, he says, making it possible for one country knowingly to "steal" another country's rainfall, causing drought

Predicting that "in 10 or 15 years environmental aggression will be a major source of political conflict," Strong urges that international rules and regulations be drawn up now to control experiments in modifying weather and climate.

No one with any acquaintance with history will believe that men will shrink from using the new science of weather modification to the disadvantage of their neighbors.

But while you can "steal" rainfall, you can hardly stash it in the national treasury. It has to fall somewhere, and chances are it will fall on your own head in amounts greater than you care to have.

In other words, the best defense against "environmental aggression" may be that, like nuclear aggression, it is likely to hurt the aggressor as much as the aggressee.

WHAT'S YOUR IMAGE?

An operator of a successful chain of food stores recently made the following comments about his attitude toward newspaper advertising:

"We believe that advertising is necessary to portray an image or to establish a name. This image may portray low prices, high quality, variety, friendly atmosphere or whatever you believe is necessary to attract the food customer.

"We believe that customer loyalty is not as strong as it was in the days of credit and delivery. A recent survey tells us that the shopper visits an average of 2.7 different stores weekly and she makes 3.5 trips for food each week. We strongly believe, therefore, that good advertising influences a decision on where she goes on that trip.

"We believe that good food store advertising can influence an increase of as much as 20% on weekly sales, if the ad is:

. attractive
. the message is feasible
. the prices are right."

These were thoughts expressed about a food chain, but the same can apply to your advertising. Give us a call and let us show you how we can do the job for you!

NO REAL SUBSTITUTES

As wage and price controls tighten their grip and pressure increases for exemptions or modifications of the rules, the ultimate corollary of controls should be kept in mind -- shortages and most likely rationing. The longer the controls are imposed, the more likely is the prospect of fewer necessities and luxuries of the kind people now take for granted.

Under a system of frozen prices, goods that cannot be produced profitably will no longer be made. As rent control goes contrary to the realities of the marketplace, there will be fewer places to rent. Freezing wages, salaries and income of all kinds eventually kills incentive. And, so in the end, controls bring, not stability, not progress, but a downward curve in productive activity.

There are no subsitutes for curbing excessive government spending which is the breeder of inflation and is the one thing that must be controlled and not hidden in tricky government bookkeeping. Until government spending is brought under control, all other controls will prove futile. They will merely lead to less freedom and opportunity.

SENATORS SHOULD EXPLAIN

Senators who are demanding "raw files" on military operations in Indochina, in order to find out what military leaders to punish, should explain first what is so criminal about bombing enemy invaders in order to slow down the killing of U. S. soldiers. Certain Senators, who have often been noted for their concern to protect the rights of communist spies, rapists, arsonists and revolutionary murderers and saboteurs, seem all in a dither to "hunt some witches" in the Pentagon.

It is very clear why Prince Sihanouk wanted the U. S. to bomb the invaders of his country without announcing it to the world. Sihanouk knew the North Vietnamese had invaded his country and were using his territory as privileged sanctuaries from which to kill U. S. fighting men. He also feared Russian and Red Chinese retaliation if he openly protested the Red invasion. So he first ignored the U. S. bombing and then refused to protest it when U. S. newsmen revealed the "secret," a secret which Sihanoik knew all along.

It is also clear why Sihanoik now denies the bombing was done with his tacit permission. He is virtually a ward of Mao in Red China and hopes to regain his rule of Cambodia by permission of the invading North Vietnamese and rebel forces. His willingness to do business with the Red invaders in the first place is what lost him his rulership of Cambodia, but that is another story.

What is not clear is why certain U. S. Senators are so eager to punish U. S. military men for saving thousands of U. S. lives by crippling the Red invaders' sanctuaries and why these Senators believe in protecting spies, rapists, murderers, etc., from "raw files" but wish to destroy every U. S. military leader possible who opposes communist invaders. HLH

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

Why Not I. T. & T.?

Moscow, Mao and Marxist Labor Controlled Chile Through Allende's Secret Armies

WASHINGTON--- There are those who believe that the initials I. T. & T. and CIA are politically pornographic. I don't.

I know Chile and the history of its 60- year- old Communist party launched in 1913 by a Childean labor leader, Emilio Recabarren. He was an associate of V. I. Lenin and later was in the "Central" which organized the Communist International and Stalin's global labor network called the Profintern.

All this and more were the heritage of the late Salvador Allende. For generations, Moscow and later Peking have been pouring tens of millions of dollars into the thin strip of a nation which can control much of the Pacific and the bottom of the world.

Chile has, of course, one of the world's biggest supplies of vital copper which is acutely short in the U. S. This can be dug only if the miners work--- and then only if their union tells them to report. So the Marxist bullion basically went to subsidize the Communist party, which operated on the theory of the "via pacifica," the electoral way to power, while the Trotskyite- Maoist Socialist party of Allende was militantly street actionist- oriented.

The Communist money paid for the purchases of printing presses, capture of radio and television workers and broadcasters' loyalty, taxi fleets with some 300 cars, 12 movie theaters and a publishing empire which knew all about the computerization and automation of printing.

This was a heavy source of income for the Communists in the mid- 60s. They crushed the anti-Communist labor leaders. They captured the labor movement known as "CUTCH"--- the central trade union network controlling some 70 per cent of Chilean organized labor---including transport, white-collar and public workers, miners, construction workers, teachers, et al.

Thus the expenditures of Marxist millions made the I. T. & T. offer and the CIA spending seem like penny ante and petty cash. Trouble is that such men as Idaho's Sen. Frank Church, whose subcommittee probed the I. T. & T. matter, just didn't bother to do much reading, research or traveling--- or consulting with anti-Communist Chileans. Mr. Church seemed ludicrous when he bemoaned the I. T. & T. offer to help the CIA fight the election of Allende in 1970. The Senator was very doleful indeed when he observed there was nothing illegal about the I. T. & T. move.

"Illegal"? It was patriotic. Allende was a brilliant Marxist agent, not leader. He managed to keep viable the coalition of Moscow representatives and Maoist operatives. Thus, in 1972, the Soviets gave him $144 million and the People's Republic of China handed him $63 million.

But more important is that the Christian Democrats and the anti- Communist Chilean labor leaders never had a chance against the Marxist "apparat" in Chile.

Unfortunately, the Muscovites and Maoists know what the American public and virtually all of its leaders never bother to study. That is--- it's the labor movement which truly is the basis of state power anywhere in this world.

Thus the Marxist drive in Chile was aimed at capturing Chilean labor from the then philosophical Socialists. The key movement was launched in 1953---- CUTCH it was called. It had sleek cars and thousands of operatives while our union friends there pleaded futilely with their American friends for two or three autos which which to fight back in the long land.

The Communists, with foreign money, grew more and more powerful inside CUTCH. By the early 1960s they were able to hit hard. They helped roll up the votes for Allende in the 1964 presidential election. He lost.

But this didn't stop the Allende Communist (and now Trotskyite- captured) Socialist coalition. They attempted to smash President Eduardo Frei's Christian Democratic government. In 1965 the Communists called an outlaw 36- day copper strike. It was led by three tough Marxists. They actually illegally expelled the legitimate Christian Democratic labor leaders who opposed the wildcat strike. It cost some $40 million.

Finally, in March 1969, the Communists won 14 of the 27 seats on the CUTCH governing council. That did it. They had absolute control. They rolled on now and gave Allende his strong vote in 1970.

In return, the late president then handed the Communist party three powerful ministries--- Justice, Labor and Economy--- though the Communists had only 6 of 50 Senate seats and 22 of 150 deputies.

And he granted CUTCH the dues checkoff and made it Chile's official labor movement.

They took orders from Moscow--- not Allende. And they organized an underground paramilitary force.

Thus Allende's last radio appeal was to his "workers" to occupy the big factories and fight off the junta's forces. There are those who grieve for Allende's downfall. I don't. His own activists beat the hell out of non- Communist, Christian Democrats and labor leaders alike.

Allende was power-driven. It took 60 years to get him to the presidential palace. But it wasn't done with mirrors or even muscle. It took millions of dollars. Marxist money. It was an invasion.

I. T. & T. was not the only American entity which offered money to beat Allende--- not just to head off a leftist but to end the Moscow- Maoist invasion.

In the end, Allende learned that Mao's little red book was right--- politics comes out the mouth of a gun. Especially if you live by it.

Western foods are on the march in the Far East. A chain of pizza pie parlors is now being franchised in Japan.

In arid villages in the Atlas Mountains of Algeria, greenery is so scare that a single tree may have several owners. Every branch is accounted for.

Are you feeling more crowded? Well, that's probably because you are. Two-thirds of a all 200-million-plus Americans are packed into only two per cent of the land, according to the National Geographic Society.

Baseball may still claim to be the national pastime, but going to old-fashioned county fairs is even more popular. Some 70 million visitors — more than a third of the U.S. population — will attend one of the 2,500 county fairs being held in 1973. They will spend $200 million in nostalgically viewing an agricultural way of life now foreign to most of them.

Quotable notables: "Miracles sometimes occur, but one has to work terribly hard for them." — Chaim Weizmann.

Telltale marks: Don't let yourself be tattooed unless you're sure you want to be marked for life. Later attempts to remove a tattoo — whether by sandpaper, surgical scalpel, steel wool, diamond wheels, or salt-water brasion — usually leave noticeable scars.

Animal guessing: Your bartender may know everything, but you probably will win money betting him he doesn't know what a zorille is. It is an African animal that looks like a small skunk and can give off a foul- smelling scent like a skunk.

No help: Defenders of psychedelic drugs say they make the mind more creative by "enlarging self-consciousness." But medical experts say no significant invention has been produced so far as a result of the use of such drugs. In their opinion, the feeling of self- confidence these drugs sometimes give is entirely an illusion.

Worth remembering: "A hippie will never be heavyweight boxing champion — because they all fight dirty."

It was Theodore Roosevelt who observed, "A man who has never gone to school may steal from a freight car, but if he has a university education, he may steal the whole railroad."

Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Jack Anderson

JACK ANDERSON SAYS:

Haldeman and Pat Nixon Squabbled Over New Jet

WASHINGTON-- The U. S. Treasury has already subsidized President Nixon's luxurious living at San Clemente and Key Biscayne. Now it is ponying up $1,785,000 to deck out his jet to suit H. R. Haldeman's and Pat Nixon's ideas of posh air comfort.

The White House recently ordered a new jet from Boeing to replace the well- traveled "Spirit of '76" as the President's lead plane. Haldeman personally took charge of the interior decorating and before he had finished, the bill had run up to $1.5 million.

When Pat Nixon found out about the appointments, she hit an air pocket. The former top White House aide, with typical Prussian efficiency, had put the staff quarters between the presidential suite and the quarters for extra family and guests.

This would have permitted top staffers to maintain their 24- hour- a- day access to the President, but the arrangement would have forced family and guests to squirm through the staff quarters to visit the President and First Lady.

After she discovered what Haldeman had done, Mrs. Nixon, who often has laid down the law to her strong-willed husband, insisted that the plane be re- designed to her own liking. As a result, the Air Force, which had faithfully followed the original Haldeman specifications, is now spending another $285,000 to conform to Pat's request that the guest lounge be next to the Nixon quarters.

Footnote: A spokesman for Mrs. Nixon confirmed that Haldeman drew up the original plans but she was unable to say whether any of the Nixons approved them before the first $1.5 million was spent. The new plane, like its predecessor, will be called "The Spirit of '76" the spokesman said. Those who have seen its deluxe comforts say it has little in common with the original spartan Spirit of '76 which George Washington and his troops showed at Valley Forge.

Chilean Machismo: Simple Latin- American machismo, or manhood, may have been a factor in the dramatic overthrow of President Salvador Allende in Chile. The Chilean Army violated a 42-year tradition of keeping out of Chilean politics when it crushed Allende's Marxist government last week.

Long before the coup, American Ambassador Nathaniel Davis cabled the State Department that "discontent and plotting in the military services have been substantially greater..."

In his secret dispatch, he also reported: "It has been galling to military and civilians to have men in uniform tear-gassing women. Some officers' own womenfolk were in (the demonstrations) protesting shortages officers themselves have experienced. It is galling to have it implied women are braver than they.

Blood from Babies: As a nutritional experiment, the Agriculture Department was all set to draw blood from the jugular veins of ghetto babies until we started asking questions. Now the dangerous idea has been scrapped.

The department had planned to extract veinous blood from infants to measure its vitamin, iron and protein content. So horrified was the Indian Health Services that it refused to let any babies under its jurisdiction be used for the experiment.

Although a highly skilled technician might draw blood safely from a baby's veins, there was no assurance Agriculture's project would be manned by such specialists. One bad mistake could traumatize a baby for life.

Following our inquiries, Agriculture Secretary Earl Butz's medical advisors assured us that all infant blood taken for the tests would be from heelpricks, toepricks or fingerpricks. The experiment is part of an otherwise commendable pilot program for feeding the poor.

Honoring Howie: Sen. Carl Curtis, R- Neb., is sponsoring a dinner for one of Washington's most unpopular men, former anti- poverty czar Howard Phillips.

Poor Phillips was hounded from his job by the courts and Congress after he larded his agency with right- wing wreckers and ex- CIA snoops who intimidated employes and all but dismantled the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Curtis, who has opposed most anti- poverty programs, is chairing the dinner this Friday because he feels Phillips should have "some of the recognition and credit he so richly deserves." In a fund solicitation, Curtis declared: "Howie had been asked by the President to dismantle OEO, and he went about the job with a right good will."

22 treated

Twenty- two accident patients were treated over the weekend in the emergency room at Missouri Delta Community Hospital.

Sanderson nets role in UMC play

COLUMBIA — Wayne Sanderson of 707 Mimosa, Sikeston, has received a role in the first major stage production of the year sponsored by the department of speech and dramatic arts at University of Missouri-Columbia.

Seventeen students have been cast in Arthur Miller's tragedy, "A View From the Bridge." Dr. Larry Clark, director, announced the cast selections and now has the play in rehearsal. The production will run Oct. 4-6 and 8-13 at University Theater in the Fine Arts Building.

"A View from the Bridge" concerns the lives of Italian immigrants struggling to survive in New York City. Sanderson will play the part of Mr. Lipari.

Richard Henry Lee and Francis Lightfoot Lee were the only brothers to sign the Declaration of Independence.

National poster contest winner

Dennis Heuring of New Hamburg holds the poster that earned him third place in the 1973 National Safety Poster Contest. From left are Carson Ligon of Cape Girardeau; Mrs. Glenn E. White of Cape Girardeau, his teacher; and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Heuring of New Hamburg.

New Hamburg boy wins contest

NEW HAMBURG — Dennis Heuring, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Heuring, and a student at State School No. 11 for Retarded Children at Cape Girardeau, won third place in the 1973 National Safety Poster Contest sponsored by United Commercial Travelers of America.

Heuring made his poster under the guidance of his teacher, Mrs. Glenn E. White.

Carson Ligon of Cape Girardeau, chairman of Council 534, UCT of A, stated that Heuring's safety poster is the first from Missouri to win since UCT has started sponsoring the contest. Ligon has presented Heuring with prizes on three levels; $5, which his poster won locally; $20, as a state winner; and $15 for a national contest winner.

Delta Fair opens Tuesday

KENNETT — The Delta Fair in Kennett will start Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. with a parade featuring over 20 bands and floats. The free grandstand attraction later Tuesday night will be rock and country singer, Vicky LaVonne and her rocking band, the Mod Countrymen.

For Wednesday night's grandstand attraction, the Delta Fair proudly presents the Bootheel's No. 1 recording artist, Narvel Felts and his new recording band. The Malden resident's record, "Drift Away", is high on the top hit chargs.

On Thursday at 7 p.m. will be a repeat of last year's big crowd pleaser, the tractor pulling contest.

George Klein will appear with his Memphis Channel 13 TV Talent Party on Friday night, featuring the WHBQuties dancers; the new rock group, Globe; and singer Bunny Roberts.

A Delta Fair first at 8 p.m. Saturday will be quarter horse racing.

Every night $100 in cash will be given away.

Sextuplets born; 4 boys, 2 girls

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Sextuplets — four boys and two girls — have been born to a Lakewood, Colo., couple, officials at Colorado General Hospital said today.

The babies and mother were reported in fair condition.

A hospital spokesman said the infants were born Sunday night to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene J. Stanek.

The infants, born six weeks premature and ranging in weight from just under two pounds to just under three pounds, were reported breathing under their own power.

The spokesman said Caesarian surgery was necessary to assist the birth of the last five babies.

Doctors had determined six weeks ago that Mrs. Stanek would deliver six babies, the hospital said.

The couple also has a 4-year-old son. Stanek is an accountant.

Wild animal show to open

NEW MADRID — Wednesday is circus day in New Madrid when Carson and Barnes five- ring wild animal show appears for afternoon and evening performances under the world's largest big top.

The show is being brought here by the Kiwanis Club on behalf of its community betterment fund.

The gaily painted fleet of nearly 50 motorized units will roll into town shortly after dawn to transform the New Madrid High School grounds on Highway 61 into a fantasy land of circus tents.

Early morning spectators may see the elephants unload and help erect the center poles and raise the canvas into position. The main show tent, larger than a football field, measures 360 feet by 160 feet.

More than 30 carriers move the 200 persons traveling with the circus which has its own musicians.

The circus boasts the only traveling giraffe in the United States, a four- ton hippopotamus, over 30 monkeys, 22 elephants, four camels, five llamas, seven lions, two Bengal tigers, a Russian brown bear, a Canadian black bear and an Alaskan kodiak bear, two guanacos, plus a Texas midget steer, a tapir, ostrich, a yak, two donkies, two European deer and a Japanese deer.

There will be English, Spanish and American performers -- clowns, acrobats, aerialists, jugglers, wirewalkers, trained horses and dogs, together with all the color and spectacle traditional with the circus.

Highlighting the two, one and one-half hour performances will be the celebrated Carson and Barnes performing elephants and a colorful all-girl aerial ballet.

On hand at the matinee performance will be hundreds of boys and girls whose tickets were purchased by area business and professional people so that the children might have the opportunity to attend the circus.

Performances are scheduled at 5 p.m. and 8 p.m. Advance tickets at reduced prices will be available until 10 a.m. Wednesday from Kiwanis Club members.

Tickets will be on sale at the showgrounds and choice seats will be on sale inside the big top.

Circus- goers are urged to come early for easy parking and to allow time to visit the midway attractions and see the wild animals on exhibition.

Ann Landers

Readers say dogs know weekdays, faiths, etc.

Dear Ann Landers: We have an Irish setter who will not eat meat on Friday. This is no joke. For three weeks we have tested him out and it's the same story. Our neighbor said you printed a letter a few years ago from a reader who had a similar problem. Will you kindly run it again?--- R. C. In D. C.

Dear R. C.: Happy to. I will also print the follow- up letters which give an even better idea of what goes on in the animal world:

Dear Ann: Our enighbors, the Kellys, went to Europe for three weeks. They left their cocker spaniel, Lucky, with us. The first week Lucky didn't eat much. We figured he was lonesome for the Kellys. The second week his appetite perked up but on Friday he wouldn't eat the leftover roast. He just drank his water. The next day Lucky ate fine and continued to eat all through the week. When Friday came around he turned his nose up at the hamburger.

Jokingly, my husband said, "You know, that darned dog eats like the Kellys--- no meat on Friday." We all laughed. Just for the heck of it, I opened up a can of sardines and put it down. He cleaned up the tin.

Now, I ask you, Ann Landers, can a dog know when it is Friday?--- Astonished

I replied to Astonished that dogs do not know when it is Friday. I said that if there was a logical explanation for this phenomenon I didn't know what it was and I suggested that when the Kellys came home they ask them.

I printed that letter and my response. I was promptly bombarded with fantastic stories about dogs, cats, parrots, rabbits, mynah birds, squirrels--- you name it. Here are some excerpts:

From Highland Park, Ill.: If you think the Kellys' dog is unusual, what would you say about our English setter, Leviticus? We got him from some Jewish friends when he was four months old. Not only did the dog refuse to eat meat that wasn't kosher, but we had to put a Yiddish newspaper under the bowl. We tried both the Chicago Sun- Times and the Wall Street Journal, but Leviticus couldn't be fooled.--- Right Hand Up

Dear Up: I have no comment to make on Leviticus, but hear this from Mrs. Helen Palmer, the Women's Editor of the Toronto Star. She sent a clipping from that paper describing a kosher cat owned by Rabbi Louis Farrell. The mixing of meat and milk is forbidden by orthodox Jewish law. According to the news item, Rabbi Farrell's cat must have known this because he refused to drink milk when meat was served. Frequently, the kosher cat demonstrated his dedication to this dietary law for guests--- to their utter amazement.

From Miami: I don't want to take anything away from the Kellys' dog, but there's a chimpanzee in Daytona Beach who plays gin rummy. His owner began by letting the chimp play a few hands for kicks. When that chimp blitzed one of the best card players in Miami, the boys got mad and wouldn't let the monkey sit in on the game.

From Kansas City: Our oldest daughter went with a fellow I never could warm up to. Whenever he came to the house, our beagle, Sparky, had to be put in the back hall. Sparky hated that guy and he sure did show it. Our daughter married him against the advice of everyone, including our pastor. He turned out to be a real rat. I told our two younger daughters that I didn't want any young men coming to the house a second time if Sparky didn't like them. This may sound nutty, but both girls used Sparky as a guide and today they are both married happily.

Miss Mayer, Bartlett are wed

Mrs. William Randolph Barlett

DEXTER — The late summer wedding of Miss Susan Ruth Mayer and William Randolph Bartlett was solemnized Aug. 19 at 4 p.m. in First Christian Church.

The double- ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Stanldy Land before a chancel setting of brass arch candelabra holding yellow tapers accented with arrangements of yellow daisies and white baby's breath. These were flanked with spiral brass candelabra holding yellow tapers and two white wicker baskets filled with yellow daisies and white baby's breath.

Two pedestal arrangements of fern and two brass candelabras accented with yellow daisies and white baby's breath and yellow tapers and the profile brass prie dieu completed the setting.

The mother's and grandmothers' pews were marked with yellow ribbon bows. The guestbook pedestal in the church vestibule had an arrangement of yellow daisies, white baby's breath and yellow tapers.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Mayer, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bartlett of Dexter.

A medley of wedding selections was played by Mrs. Marlie Ardinger, organist. She played "Because" as the grandmothers were seated and the tapers were lit.

As the groom ushered his parents and the best man ushered the bride's mother to her seat, Mrs. Ardinger played "Sunrise, Sunset". Ron Worley, uncle of the bride, sang "If Ever I Would Leave You" before the ceremony; "The Lord's Prayer" during the nuptial blessing; and "Whither Thou Goest" after the recessional, as the church bells tolled.

Escorted to the altar and presented in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a formal gown of white dotted Swiss. The basque bodice designed gown featured a portrait neckline enhanced with sculptured Gunipure lace. The long, slim sleeves were adorned at the cuffs by a circular flounce and lace trim, and the A- line skirt was also circled by a flounce- lace mixture at the hemline and flowed into a cathedral train.

Her four- tiered bouffant veil of English silk illusion was held by a Dutch bonnet of sculptured Gunipure lace and satin ribbon trimmed with tiny seed pearls. Her bridal cascade of white daisies, white stephanotis, baby's breath and ivy was mounted on a Mother of Pearl Bible belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. Esther Worley, and brought from the Holy Land. The bride carried out the tradition of something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue in her wedding attire.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Charles Pippins, aunt of the bride. Bridesmaids were Miss Debra Stutts and Mrs. Leon Smith of Dexter and Miss Patty Deken of Qulin. Junior bridesmaids were Miss Cynthia Worley and Miss Jill Pippins, cousins of the bride.

Their gowns and the matron of honor's gown were made by their mother and grandmother.

The attendants gowns of dacron dotted Swiss were designed with rounding necklines, elbow- length puffed sleeves adorned with a band of wide lace trim, A-line long skirts and self-fabric sashes tied at the back waistlines.

Mrs. Pippin's gown was green and she carried a nosegay of green daisies and white baby's breath. Her headpiece featured three green daisies with cascading green ribbons.

Bridesmaids and junior bridesmaids wore yellow and each carried a long-stemmed yellow daisy tied with yellow streamers. Their headpieces were three yellow daisies tied with yellow cascading ribbons.

Miss Allison Bacon, cousin of the bride, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bacon of Manchester, was flower girl. She wore a long green dress of dacron dotted Swiss with empire styling, rounded neckline, short puffed sleeves and a full gathered skirt. She carried a white lace basket trimmed in green and filled with white daisy petals. Her halo headpiece was green daisies and white baby's breath.

Candlelighters were Miss Susan Cowan of Dexter and Miss Carol Bartlett of Risco, cousin of the groom. Their gowns of green dotted Swiss were designed like the matron of honor's and bridesmaids' gowns. They wore wrist corsages of green daisies and white baby's breath.

Randy Montgomery of West Point, N. Y., was best man and groomsmen were James Baker Jr. and Fredric F. Rosteck Jr. of St. Louis and Leon Smith of Dexter. Junior groomsmen were Steven Worley and Kenneth Mayer of Dexter, cousins of the bride.

Guests were seated by Richard D. Mayer Jr. and Robert N. Mayer of Dexter, also cousins of the bride.

Carrying the rings on a white satin pillow was Patrick Brown of Dexter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burley Brown.

The men in the wedding party wore black tuxedos. The groom's short had white ruffles and was trimmed in black. His boutonniere was white stephanotis.

The best man, bride's father, ushers and ringbearer wore green ruffled shirts with green daisy and white baby's breath boutonnieres. The groomsmen and junior groomsmen wore yellow ruffled shirts and yellow daisy and white baby's breath boutonnieres.

The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding a long mint green and lace knit gown of A-line styling featuring long, full sleeves gathered into wide cuffs. Her corsage was of white daisies and white baby's breath tied with green ribbon.

Mrs. Bartlett wore a sleeveless yellow knit gown of A-line design and wore a corsage of white daisies and white baby's breath tied with yellow ribbons.

Each of the grandmothers wore white cymbidium orchids and white baby's breath tied with white ribbon.

Miss Glen Ellen Mayer of Memphis, Tenn., attended the guestbook. She had a corsage of yellow daisies and white baby's breath.

Approximately 75 out-of- town relatives and friends of the couple attended.

A reception followed in the church parlor. The bride's table was overlaid with yellow net over a white satin embossed cloth. Yellow tulle was draped and caught at the corners by yellow lucette ribbons.

The five- tiered wedding cake was accented with yellow daisies and topped with the bride and groom and wedding bells used on the bride's parents' wedding cake. Encircling the cake were fresh ivy and yellow daisies with the ivy forming a table runner. On either side of the cake were white cherubs holding yellow tapers. A silver punch bowl and coffee service completed the table setting.

A gift table with overlay matching the bride's table held an arrangement of yellow daisies and yellow candles. Serving at the reception were Miss Linda Owen of Springfield, cousin of the bride; Miss Cindy Coffey, Miss Carol Davis and Miss Debbie Eskew of Dexter; Miss Carol Shipman of Bloomfield; and Miss Teresa Wilper of Florissant.

For her going- away ensemble, the bride made and wore a three- piece palazza pantsuit in blue and white double knit.

The couple left for a wedding trip to Kentucky Lake, and upon heir return will make their home in Cape Girardeau.

The bride is a sophomore at Southeast Missouri State University majoring in vocational home economics. The groom is a senior majoring in mathematics.

A buffet supper was held at the home of the bride's parents following the wedding for approximately 50 guests. Assisting the Mayers were Mrs. Richard Mayer and Mrs. Doyle Worley, aunts of the bride.

A rehearsal dinner was held Aug. 18 at the Hickory House Restaurant given by the groom's parents for 40 guests, including members of the bridal party and families.

Special guests were the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Esther Worley; her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Irene Mayer; and the groom's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray White of Essex.

Following the dinner, the couple presented gifts to each of their attendants. A highlight of the evening was a vocal solo by Ron Worley, uncle of the bride: "Get Me to the Church on Time". He was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Stanley Land.

The bride was honored with a bridal shower July 27 at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Averett given by Mrs. Leon Smith, Mrs. Alan Robinson and Miss Debra Stutts, close friends of the bride.

She was also complimented with a shower at First Christian Church July 31. Hostesses were Mrs. David Agey, Mrs. James Anderson, Mrs. Louis Rankin, Mrs. Burley Brown, Mrs. Eugene Edwards, Mrs. Wafe Reed and Mrs. Margaret Rendleman.

The bride was honored with a recipe shower on the morning of Aug. 3 by her aunts and cousins, Mrs. Ron Worley and Cynthia and Steven and Mrs. Charles Pippins and Jill Ann. Several recipes were received from out- of- town relatives in addition to those attending.

Miss Etienne bride of Gary Mainord

LILBOURN — Immaculate Conception Catholic Church at New Madrid was the setting for the Aug. 18 wedding of Miss Jo Etienne and Gary Wayne Mainord. Father W. F. Bauer and seminarian Ernest Hardesty performed the doublering ceremony.

Three candles were on the front altar which was the background for the kneeling bench. The two outer candles were lit by Cary Prince of Marston as the ceremony began. The two side altars each held large baskets of milticolored daisies. Pastel bows marked the family pews. As the guests entered, Linda Kay Bledsoe of New Madrid greeted them at the guestbook.

Paula Blankenship provided music at the organ. Laura Hunter of New Madrid sang "And I Love You" as the mothers entered the church.

Following the ceremony the bride placed a bouquet of daisies below the statue of the Virgin Mary. The couple then lit the center candle signifying unity after blowing out the two other candles. "The Wedding Song" was sung by Laura Hunter as the candle was lit.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Etienne, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Mainord, all of Lilbourn. Grandparents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Bledsoe of Matthews.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full-length empire- styled gown of white chiffon with a bodice of modified applique lace and beaded pearls. The long sleeves were of chiffon with satin cuffs trimmed with lace, satin buttons and beaded pearls. A train of modified applique lace flowed from the back empire waist.

The full- length veil of silk illusion flowed in a mantilla style from a satin headpiece with small flowers and beaded pearls in heart shapes. The birde's bouquet was a cascade of multicolored marguerite daisies.

The attendants were Miss Mary Lynne Sickrey of Boston, Mass., maid of honor, and Mrs. Debbie Teague of Memphis, Tenn., and Mrs. Mary Roberts, both sisters of the bride, and Miss Kim Mainord, sister of the groom, as bridesmaids.

The maid of honor wore a blue wiasted gown of leno styled with a rounded neckline, long sleeves and a ruffled hem. The bridesmaids' gowns were of the same style of blue flowered leno. Each of the attendants wore matching picture hats and carried small nosegays of marguerite daisies.

Miss Sheila Davis of Blytheville, Ark., was flower girl. She wore a dress matching those of the bridesmaids and carried a small basket of daisies and ribbons and petals. Brian Robinson, nephew of the bride, was ringbearer.

Jimmy (Duke) Mainord served as best man. The groomsmen were Lanny Lewis, Doug Thompson and Cary Prince of Marston.

Ushers were Steve Thompson of New Madrid and Cary Prince of Marston.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the New Madrid community building.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Linda Quinn and Miss Jolene Simpson of Memphis and Mrs. Teresa Berry.

The bride's mother wore a full- length dress of beige knit with a bodice of pale blue paisley and a matching corsage of daisies. The mother of the groom wore a full- length dress of turquoise blue knit and a matching corsage of daisies.

The rehearsal dinner was held at the home of the groom on Friday evening.

The couple honeymooned in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Their home is now at Lilbourn. The bride is employed as the school nurse at Matthews, and the groom is farming with his father.

The average goat produces only about three ounces of fleece. That accounts for the high price of cashmere wool.

Couple celebrates 30th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nichols

BELL CITY- Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nichols celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary in their home on Aug. 24.

A miniature bride and groom centerpiece was used on the gift table and wedding bells and streamers accented the rest of the family room. Identical punch bowls were at each end of the anniversary cake. The two-tier cake was decorated with red and pink roses with a large 30 written on top.

Nuts, mints and assorted cookies were also served to the guests.

JoAnn Engram and Pat, Patricia and Alice Nichols served cake and punch to the guests. Carolyn Nichols was at the guestbook.

Mr. and Mrs. Nichols have six children. They are Harold, Ronald, Patricia, Darrell, Carolyn and David, who were all present for the day. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nichols have two children, Teri and Brian. Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Nichols have one child, Scott.

Nichols and the former Pauline Partin were married on Aug. 24, 1943 in Charleston.

Mrs. Nichols is the daughter of George Partin and the late Tennie Breedlove Partin of Sikeston. Nichols is the son of Mr. I. W. Nichols and the late Oma Selby Nichols of Crowder.

Nichols presented his wife a set of diamond rings and Mrs. Nichols presented her husband diamond tie tacks.

Others attending and presenting gifts were:

Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Verble, Mr. and Mrs. John Engram and Johnny, Mrs. Ruby Burton and Shirley and Barbara of Vanduser.

Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Hoosier, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Hesselrode, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Boley, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Driskell, Mr. and Mrs. Max Bollinger, Mrs. Helen Dockins and Terry and Mike, Mrs. Patsy Rendleman and George, Mrs. Bill Freeman and Sherri, Mrs. Dorothy Hasty, Mr. I. W. Nichols, and Mary, Ray and Baxter Bridges of Bell City.

Mrs. J. T. Smith and Harold, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Clark and Terry, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Owens and Sherri, Mrs. Marilyn Alberson and Mrs. Carolyn Goehri of Sikeston; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Engram, Mr. and Mrs. John Arbuckle and Traci and Alan and Mrs. Zelma McCoy, of Oran.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Hasty of Cape Girardeau; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Horne and Andrea and Kandita of Memphis, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Neldon and Jamie of Clarkton; Mrs. Mike Rogacs and Angela of Topeka, Kan.: Mrs. Dee Moore of Butler; Mrs. Carla Borland and Jarrod and Jeremy of Calhoun; Mrs. Sada Perkins of Cooter; and Mrs. Lorraine Burge of Indiana.

Little Orphan Annie has been a 12- or 13-year-old moppet wearing the same neat red dress since 1924. Her wise dog Sandy, whose vocalizations consist of "Arf;" and "Arf; Arf;" never ages either.

Philosophy guides budget formulation

JEFFERSON CITY — The heads of Missouri's various state agencies are being asked to adopt a new approach to the budget requests they prepare for the new fiscal year that will begin July 1, 1974.

"No longer are agencies going to be able to assume that their new budgets will be the same as the previous year's with an increase for inflation," Mark Edelman, state budget director, told a news conference last week. "We're going to turn the tables on them. We're going to ask them why do you even have what you have now?"

Edelman said the new approach, called program analysis, is a philosophy of budgeting. It is an attempt to measure the value of a specific program as well as its cost, he said.

As a first step in implementing the new program, Gov. Bond has asked the department heads and their budget officers to conduct an analysis and evaluation of their programs during the next 90 days with the results to be reflected in their budget requests.

"I would not expect you to ask for increased funds for those programs for which you may have no clearly defined objective and no qualitative and/or qualitiative objective achievement measurements," Bond said in a message to the agencies. "Insofar as funds are available, I would expect to recommend to the legislature its support of programs which clearly promote the welfare and betterment of Missouri as evidenced by program performance."

Edelman cited two advantages of program analysis. For one, he said, it lets the governor and the legislature focus on the issues and not get bogged down in the number of pencil sharpeners an agency is requesting. For another, he said, the new approach will identify the goals and accomplishments of the various agencies.

It will not mean there will be a reduction in the amount of information contained in the budget requests, however, Edelman said.

"In no way will any less information be given than has been given in the past," Edelman said.

The state has been unsuccessful in its second attempt to secure bids to supply its gasoline and fuel oil needs.

No bids were received on fuel oil and only one company bid on the state's gasoline requirements at a bid opening last week. The lone gasoline bid was made only for Texas and Dent counties.

Herbert C. Damron, director of the Office of Administration's Division of Contracting and Procurement, said the lack of bids will cause the state to continue to purchase the fuels it needs at higher retail prices.

"We will request that each agency inform the procurement division when it is impossible for them to obtain fuel and will continue efforts to develop state fuel sources," Damron said.

State officials estimate the state will need 3.5 million gallons of fuel oil and 1 million gallons of gasoline during the coming year.

Damron noted the procurement division had been criticized for requesting bids on a statewide or regional basis the first time the invitation was made. "The invitations sent out this time allowed bidding by county and also allowed an escalation clause," he said. "Unfortunately, this did not provide sufficient bids for our requirements."

The state Division of Design and Construction should have better luck finding bidders for a capital improvements project that is in the works.

Bids are being sought for work to refurbish the chamber of the Missouri House of Representatives.

Plans call for new draperies, additional lighting and rewiring, the refinishing of desks, paint and a new red carpet. Cost of the project has been estimated at $187,000.

The chamber has not been refurbished completely since the 1940s. The present carpet was installed in the late 1950s.

The improvements are expected to be completed in time for the start of the next legislative session in January.

Educational funding resolution approved

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP) — A resolution recommending state funding for continuing education has been approved by the state Commission on Higher Education, but the commission's executive secretary says the resolution will be reconsidered.

Funding of continuing education, where persons who work in the daytime can take courses at night, usually off campus, has been a controversy for years.

The college and university presidents feel the instruction should be funded. The commission and the legislature has not recommended counting such students of budget purposes.

The resolution said funding would not be included for continuing education at the Independence residence center because the center has not been approved by the commission. The Independence center has about 1,000 students who are not part of the fulltime, lower division operation there.

The resolution was unanimously approved by the six members present Monday afternoon while the executive secretary, Jack Cross, and the commission chairman, H. Lang Rogers, were out of the room. Commission member C. Brice Ratchford, president of the University of Missouri, was absent.

Cross said Friday the resolution would be reconsidered Oct. 1.

Mark Scully, president of Southeast Missouri State University, offered the resolution.

"I think they'll leave it that way," he said Friday.

The resolution recommends that 5 per cent of the total number of semester hours reported for budget purposes by a state university or college may have been earned off campus. The limit for the University of Missouri was 10 per cent.

Only credit courses listed in the campus catalog shall be counted.

Credit hours earned by students enrolled at an unapproved residence center shall not be counted, the resolution said. That would exclude Independence, which the governor has asked the University of Missouri curators to take over.

The center now is operated by Central Missouri State. The only residence center approved by the commission is at West Plains.

Credit hours earned off campus shall be reported, budgeted and funded separately, but at the same level as those earned on campus, the resolution said.

Southeast Missouri State's total off-campus credit hours is 2 per cent of the total instruction. The highest is Central Missouri State, with about 5 per cent.

The theory behind the higher figure for the University of Missouri is that "all their extension hours don't equal 10 per cent of their total hours," Scully said.

Scully said the colleges should be funded for what they have been doing and will continue to do — offer off-campus instruction.

October to be Immunization Action Month

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP) — Gov. Christopher S. Bond will sign Tuesday a proclamation naming October as Immunization Action Month.

Immunization Action Month is a blitz-styled program designed to shake the nation's complacency toward immunization of pre-school children. The campaign was planned by the U. S. Public Health Service's Center for Disease Control and has gained the support of several major health organizations.

Aim is to motivate parents to conduct a family audit on the immunization status of their children through family physicians and public health clinics, and to create physician interest in these parental inquiries.

Consumers keep eye on prices

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Consumers kept a wary eye on the supermarket cash register today as the experts tried to figure out what would happen to beef prices that were freed from controls a week ago.

Farmers, processors and retailers generally agreed that beef prices would settle down at a level determined by the law of supply and demand.

"The way things look now, the cost of food in the last three months of this year might even be less than in July through September," said Agriculture Secretary Earl L. Butz in an interview published in U.S. News & World Report.

"In the last month, we've had substantial drops in farm prices of cattle and hogs and corn and soybeans and wheat," he said. "At the same time, shoppers in the supermarket are finding the price of many foods — especially meat and chicken and eggs — is down moderately."

An Associated Press survey showed there were scattered declines last week with prices for some beef items dropping as much as 20 per cent below their ceiling level as supplies increased faster than demand.

"The market has straightened itself out without the help of the federal government," said Terry Ward, market relatons director at the Milwaukee, Wis., stockyards.

Ward said more expensive cuts of meat simply weren't selling, making it virtually impossible for retailers to boost prices further. "If there is a sudden surge of interest in better cuts, we will see a sharp increase (in prices)," he said. "But if the market continues to move sluggishly, I see a drop in prices."

A spokesman for Safeway Stores in Washington, D.C., Maryland, Delaware, southern Pennsylvania and northern Virginia said there were price changes on only three of eight major beef cuts during the first week after the freeze ended. Two items — porterhouse steak and rib roast — went up by 10 cents a pound each and one item, blade chuck steak, dropped by 10 cents.

The Big Bear chain of stores in Ohio said it would not raise any beef prices for at least two weeks because the market generally was too erratic.

The ceiling on beef, imposed more than five months ago, was lifted last Monday, two days ahead of schedule. At the same time, new regulations went into effect allowing increases on other food items to reflect higher operating costs.

There were scattered increases in the prices of some nonmeat products, particularly dairy and wheat items, but most retailers said it was too early to predict any specific price trend.

Electrical short starts fire

An electrical short in a clothes dryer was blamed for a fire which did minor damage to the T.E. Campbell home, 204 Wakefield, about 5 p.m. Sunday.

Firemen said the fire was located in the basement ceiling but was quickly extinguished.

Firemen were called at 3:57 p.m. Sunday to a weed fire at 410 Broadway apparently caused by children playing with matches.

A trash fire at 2:47 p.m. Saturday set fire to a small two- wheeled trailer at Scott and Trotter streets. Firemen said damage was minor.

Agee leads Card comeback

ST. LOUIS (AP) — "It was what I'd call some kind of sack," Manager Red Schoendienst exulted. "The ball really cracked. I thought it'd never come down."

Schoendienst's reference was to a Sunday home run off the bat of parttime player Tommie Agee renewing the hope of his struggling St. Louis Cardinals.

Agee's wallop, a pinch hit carrying 440 feet, snapped a 3-3 tie and ushered the Cardinals to a 7-3 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates in baseball's National League East.

And Schoendienst, his club two games behind the Bucs, thought he saw further hope in the division's schedule for the final two weeks.

The Cardinals are to take on the second- place Montreal Expos in a twin bill at Montreal tonight as the Pirates return home against the fourth- place New York Mets.

Whereas the Cards have three games left with the Expos and two against New York, the schedule for Pittsburgh is crammed with 12 against the same foes.

"That's going to be tough for all three teams, "observed Schoendienst, whose Cards are nestled in third place, 1½ behind Montreal. "Every time one loses we have a chance to gain.

"We're still alive," the unshakable manager insisted. "If we'd lost today it would have hurt, but we'd still be alive."

Agee, a Mets here in the 1969 World Series, entered the Sunday fray after the Cards fell behind 2-0, fought back to tie and squandered a 3-2 lead.

Rich Hebner's 22nd home in the top of the seventh forged the final deadlock before Pirates reliever Luke Walker, 7-11, easily disposed of Lou Brock and Ted Sizemore.

Agee was summoned to hit for Bake McBride against the Pirages left- hander and rifled his 10th home run to straight- away center field with the count -20.

"I hit a fast ball about knee high," the 31- year - old former sore-kneed outfielder said. "If I can see the ball, I can hit it no matter where it is."

The Cardinals afterward called on two more pinch-hitters in the eighth inning and Tim McCarver, the second, slapped a two- run single sealing the Pirates' doom.

"It was just a pop fly that was in the right place," explained McCarver, a Red birds repatriate. "I was tickled to death. I'll take them any way."

"It's hard for our club to catch up when we're behind," Schoendienst conceded. "It makes you feel good to see a ball hit like that of Agree for your side."

We'll pay you $342 a month to work in Europe

By the time you finish your training and get to Euorpe, you'll be making $342.30 before deductions. With raises and promotions as you move up.

You'll be guaranteed a minimum of 16 months with one of our outfits stationed in Euorpe. Where you'll have a chance to take part in a new program called adventure training. You might navigate a river in a rubber raft, or climb one of Europe's highest mountains.

But there'll be leisure time, too. A 30- day paid vacation to explore France, Denmark, Switzerland or Austria, all within easy access.

If you want to live and work in places tourists only visit, call or see your local Army Representative. Ask him about job opportunities in Europe. Today's Army wants to join you.

What's the law?

The case of the reluctant father

By Jack Strauss, LL.B.

Rita gave birth to a son out of bedlock and named Handsome Harry as her hit and run lover. She accused him of fathering her child and took him to court to make him pay for the child's support. Harry, of course, was a reluctant father.

"She's got the wrong dude," insisted Harry in court. "I'm innocent. I'm not the kid's father. The fact is I've never been any closer to Rita than her eighth cousin."

"That's what he says," answered Rita, but I've got an ace in the hole."

Whereupon, Rita produced her prodigy in court and challenged the jury not to be able to see the strong resemblance between Harry and the child, particularly as to their profiles.

Instead of singing "Clumb Upon My Knee, Sonny Boy," Harry demanded that the child be evicted from the courtroom and demanded a new trial.

"Bringing that kid into the court," he argued, "Prejudiced the jury against me. Their job is to determine facts and not facial resemblances."

IF YOU WERE THE JUDGE, would you grant reluctant Harry a new trial?

This is how the judge ruled: YES! The judge held that a jury is not qualified to decide a paternity case by looking to see if there is a resemblance between the alleged father and the child. Asking the jury to do so, concluded the judge, was prejudicial to Harry so as to entitle him to the new trial requested.

Applications available for test

A testing team headed by Dr. Charles Shedd of Lafayette, La., will be available Oct. 5-6 in Mayfield, Ky., to test children and others with learning disabilities.

Applications for the testing may be obtained by writing to SeMo Research Association of Specific Perceptual Motor Disabilities, Inc., P. O. Box 327, Cape Girardeau, Mo. 63701. The address of the testing location in Mayfield will then be sent to the persons applying. There is a $10 registration fee and a $35 testing fee.

Dr. Shedd is director of the Reading Research Foundation of Lafayette, of which he is the founder. He is also on the pediatric research staff at the University of Alabama Medical College in Tuscaloosa, Ala. Dr. Shedd is a graduate of Harvard University in Cambridge, Mass.,. and holds master of education and doctor of philosophy degrees from University of Oklahoma in Norman, Okla.

After the testing, if children are found to need special help, they may be enrolled in the Saturday Tutorial Program in Cape Girardeau. The program is held for 32 Saturdays from 7:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at Hawthorne School. Those enrolled receive training in motor skills, reading, math and auditory and social values.

Prayer for today

from the Upper Room

Be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. (James 1:22)

PRAYER: Teach us, dear Lord, that we may not fall into the danger of being simply hearers of the Word. Grant us the heart of Christ to love and to serve in all spheres of our lives. Amen.

Housewife stabs alleged kidnaper

ROLLA, Mo. (AP) — A young Springfield housewife ended 10 hours of terror for her family early Sunday when she stabbed their alleged kidnaper with a dinner knife in a cafe here.

Police say the incident began earlier Saturday after the slaying of a Springfield man.

Police report the man allegedly surprised Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leo Jarrett and their 4-year-old daughter, Tracy, in their Springfield home, then forced them to drive him 110 miles northeast to Rolla.

Springfield police said the man, identified as Robert W. Knighton, 32, of Springfield, was being returned there to face charges of kidnaping and possible other charges in connection with the death of Coffier Day Jr., of Springfield.

Police said Knighton, who was released three weeks ago from the Missouri Penitentiary at Jefferson City after serving four years for armed assault, had maintained a long feud with Day.

Knighton visited the home of Coffier Day Sr., on Saturday, police said, and the younger Day was shot and killed in an argument that ensued. The father, who had been watching television in a nearby room, suffered a bullet wound in the neck.

The Jarrett family returned to their home, about two blocks from the Day residence, around 3:30 p.m. Saturday to be confronted by an armed man. The Jarrets told police the man threatned to kill them if they did not cooperate. He then forced Jarrett to drive he and the family east from Springfield on Interstate 44.

About 1 a.m. Sunday the four stopped at Malo's Cafe at Rolla. They said the kidnaper hid a handgun in his clothing and warned the family not to arouse suspicion.

Rolla police reported Mrs. Jarrett, upon sitting at the table, picked up a dinner knife and stabbed the man several times in the face. The man dropped his pistol, which was recovered by a cafe employe.

Police found another pistol and a shotgun in the Jarretts' car. Knighton was treated at a Rolla hospital for face cuts and held overnight in the Phelps County jail before being returned to Springfield.

Springfield detectives said the elder Day had identified Knighton as his assailant.

P'ville home burglarized

PORTAGEVILLE — A 19-inch portable television set, an antique doll chiffarobe, a hearing aid, 15-inch silver pitcher and assorted jewelry were reported stolen Sunday in a break- in at the home of Mrs. Kathryn Kinnard, 413 Huffman, while she was away during the weekend.

Entry was gained by breaking a front door glass and reaching inside to unlock the door.

UAW talks making progress

DETROIT (AP) — Weary negotiators today recessed a 23-hour marathon bargaining session aimed at ending the threeday strike by the United Auto Workers against Chrysler. Company officials said the allnight session had brought "considerable progress."

"We are now optimistic about an early settlement," a Chrysler statement said after the session broke up.

Spokesmen for both the company and union insisted the talks had not broken off, and a union spokesmen said its negotiators planned to return at noon today.

"It's not a bargaining breakdown, it's a breakdown of stamina," Chrysler Vice President William O'Brien told newsmen after the marathon session.

Because of a news blackout imposed on the negotiations, no further details could be obtained about progress in the bid to end the strike which began at midnight Friday and is affecting 112,000 UAW members at Chrysler plants in the United States and Canada.

But O'Brien did concede, "We're closer than we were yesterday."

A newsman who told UAW President Leonard E. Woodcock that O'Brien said the two sides are "close" drew the reply, "I think you're misquoting." Otherwise, union leaders had no comment.

O'Brien told newsmen as he was leaving the bargaining room that he was on his way to talk with Chrysler Chairman Lynn Townsend.

Townsend reportedly stayed at company headquarters during most of the marathon bargaining session.

The strike was costing the 112,000 UAW members $5 million a day in wages, the union said.

And Chrysler was faced with soaring production losses and prospects of laying off office workers.

Company executives said that, if no settlement were reached today, they would decide whether to lay off an unspecified number of the automaker's 10,500 white-collar workers. Layoffs would hit only those whose jobs are linked with car and truck production.

Chrysler's automotive assembly lines were halted at midnight Friday when thousands of UAW members walked off their jobs.

That meant Chrysler lost 4,600 cars it had expected to assemble Saturday on overtime. Chrysler had planned to build 42,000 cars and 11,000 trucks this week, including Saturday overtime.

The auto maker has told its suppliers in the steel, tire and parts industries to hold all shipments until further notice. No contracts with suppliers have been canceled, a company spokesman said Sunday.

Even so, the Budd Co., a Detroit-based parts supplier, said it is laying off 250 of its 2,500 workers because of the Chrysler strike.

Due to a continuing news blackout, there was no solid evidence Sunday of how far company and union were apart on the issues that triggered the strike.

A union spokesman said Canadian bargainer Charles Brooks of Windsor, Ont., received a rebuke from the union after he broke the blackout Saturday night with a report of progress in the negotiations.

Sources close to the bargaining said the key issues were the union's insistence on voluntary overtime, plant safety and higher pensions with workers allowed to retire on full benefits after 30 years in the plants.

Livestock groups band together

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP) — The shortage of meat has brought about a rise in both livestock rustling and deer poaching in Missouri and that, in turn, has brought about an intensive campaign to stop both.

The State Department of Conservation is working with livestock groups and other law agencies to clamp a lid on illegal deer and cattle stealing.

"Many rustling incidents aren't reported," says Mike Bauman, executive secretary of the 2,200-member Missouri Cattlemen's Association. "But it would be a pretty accurate estimate to say that Missouri cattlemen will love $3 million worth of cattle this year." The 1972 loss was estimated at $2 million.

"We're finding, especially in southern Missouri, that rustlers are taking whatever comes along whether it's a calf, steer, bull, cow, turkey or deer," Bauman said.

In one incident in southeast Missouri, rustlers shot a cow and cut only one hindquarter from it, leaving the rest to rot.

Livestock producers are banding together over the state to form citizen patrols.

Robert Moss, Oronogo, is president of the Jasper County Cattlemen's Association, one of the livestock owner groups to form a citizens patrol of country roads to try to shut off a serious livestock rustling problem. It has worked.

"We haven't caught any rustlers," he says. "But we've sure discouraged a lot of them. The incidence of rustling has gone 'way down since we started patrolling in March."

Grain Market

CHICAGO (AP) — Commodity futures prices were strong in early dealings on the Chicago Board of Trade today.

On the opening, soybeans were 9 to 15 cents a bushel higher, November 6.30; wheat was 2 to 11 higher, September 5.36; corn was 4 to 9½ higher, September 2.62 and oats were 2½ to 6 higher, September 1.27.

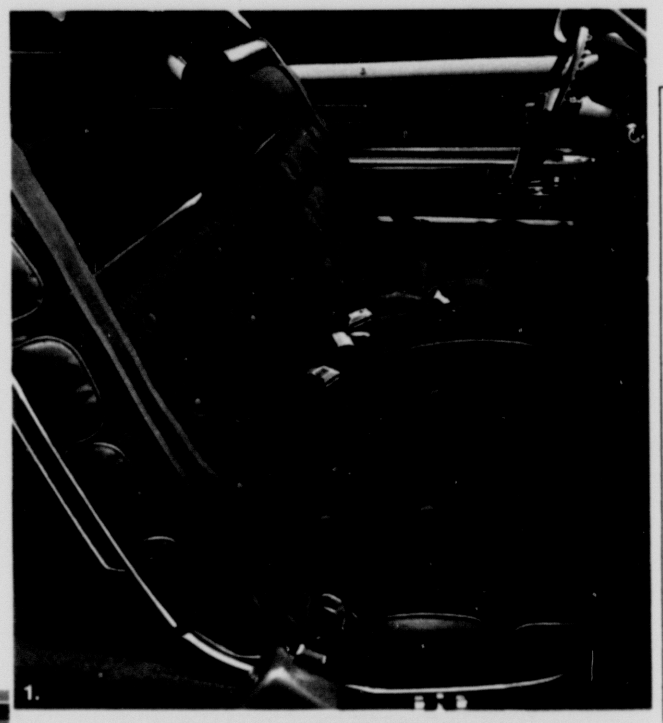
BOOTHEEL OLDS DEALERS
BOLDS

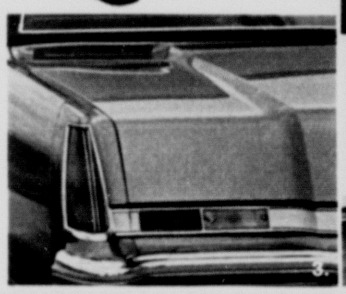
Come see the real thing at your Sikeston Bold Olds Dealer. He's a member of the Bootheel Oldsmobile Dealer Group. Fine guys who are always ready and willing to give you a good deal!

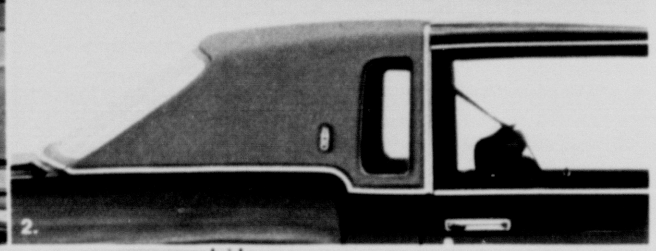
"Come meet the '74 Oldsmobiles– our showroom is full of beautiful reasons for you to move into an Olds this year."

"It's the only luxury car I know of whose owners talk as much about its performance as they do about its looks and comfort. Its front-wheel drive makes a difference that grows on you."

Toronado—Oldsmobile's personal luxury car, with front-wheel drive. Built on its own private assembly line, by specialists who work on no other car. Engineered to come alive on the road, to handle curves and straightaways superbly. When you drive a Toronado, you drive one of the world's most distinguished cars.







Toronado standard equipment includes: Rocket 455 V8 □ Turbo Hydra-matic transmission □ Power steering □ Power front disc brakes □ Power ventilation □ High-level stop-and-turn lamps □ New instrument panel with message center □ New digital clock with quartz-crystal controlled movement □ New combination seat/shoulder belts (self-storing) with starter interlock, for driver and right front passenger □ New T-crest hood ornament □ Hydraulic bumper systems, front and rear □ Bumper guards and impact strips.

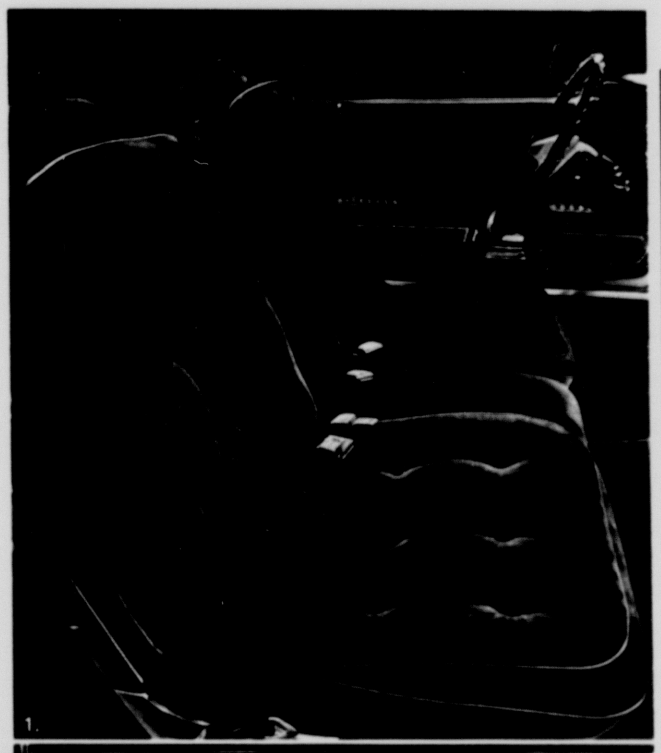
Available equipment includes: New opera roof and windows □ Tempmatic air conditioning with activated charcoal odor filter □ High-energy ignition system □ New GM-steel-belted radial tires □ True Track braking system □ Brougham interior with velour upholstery and divided front seat □ Custom paint striping □ Protective side molding.

1. Brougham interior offered with divided seat, velour upholstery.
2. New Toronado Opera Roof available this year.
3. Toronado trademark: high-level stop-and-turn lamps.

Toronado. Engineering can be beautiful.

"You wouldn't believe the excitement this car is causing. Olds has built fine luxury cars for years, but this Regency is suddenly getting Olds a lot of new recognition–and a lot of new believers, too."

Regency is a new approach to motorcar comfort. The seats are built with the loose-cushion look you find in fine sofas and chairs—and the difference is impressive. So are the touches you'll find all around. Come in and sink down in a Regency 4-door, or the new 2-door —you'll marvel at the comfort, no matter what luxury cars you've owned.



Regency standard equipment includes: Rocket 455 V8 □ Turbo Hydra-matic transmission □ Power steering □ Power windows □ Power front disc brakes □ Power ventilation □ Special Regency seat design □ Velour upholstery selections □ Divided front seat with center armrest □ Driver's power seat controls □ New instrument panel with message center □ New digital clock with quartz-crystal controlled movement □ Zippered pouches on seatbacks □ New acoustic insulation □ New combination seat/shoulder belts for driver and right front passenger □ Hood ornament □ Swingaway grille □ Hydraulic bumper systems, front and rear.
Available equipment includes: Tempmatic air conditioning with activated charcoal odor filter □ Tinted glass □ High-energy ignition system □ New GM steel-belted radial tires □ Stereo AM/FM radio □ Protective side molding.

1. This seat design is offered in saddle and black velours.
2. New message center for warning lights, monitor systems.
3. New digital clock—facing styled by Tiffany & Co.

Ninety-Eight Regency. The kind of comfort you can live with a long, long time.

"The big-car buyers I meet today don't want just good looks—they want a car that's built tough enough to take a lot of miles. That's why a lot of new buyers come over to Delta 88 and Delta 88 Royale every year."

Even the styling changes in this Delta 88 Royale coupe are more than just pretty. The new roofline is handsome—and provides greatly increased glass area. The roof itself is two layers of steel, for strength and quiet. With fenders inside of front fenders, steel side guard beams inside the doors, hydraulic bumper system fore and aft, you can see a Delta 88 is really put together.

Delta 88 and Royale standard equipment includes: Rocket 350 V8 □ Turbo Hydra-matic transmission □ Variable-ratio power steering □ Power front disc brakes with wear indicators □ Power ventilation □ New combination seat/shoulder belts for driver and right front passenger □ Hydraulic bumper systems, front and rear □ 124-inch wheelbase □ Deep-foam seat construction □ New instrument panel with message center.
Available equipment includes: Tempmatic air conditioner (activated charcoal odor filter) □ High-energy ignition system with Rocket 455 V8 □ Divided (60/40) front seat with center armrest □ GM steel-belted radial tires □ Digital clock □ Trailer towing equipment.

1. Room, comfort, plush touches—all live up to the Royale name.
2. This Swingaway grille is hinged at the top to move when the bumper gets bumped.
3. New coupe roofline creates a new look, increases visibility, too.

Delta 88 Royale. It's really put together. More than just a pretty car.

"Last year, the Salon was a sedan–and a sensational road car. This year, it's two sensational road cars–a new coupe and the sedan. You can get either one for far less than you'd pay for an expensive imported touring car."

Team GT road performance with family sedan comforts—you've got a grand touring car. Like Salon. A special suspension and steel-belted radial tires are standard for the road; a new faster steering for response. Vinyl-clad soft-grip steering wheel. Plus a fabulous continental-type interior —contoured reclining lounge seats up front, velour upholstery —and there's family-size room in back. Terrific!

Cutlass Salon standard equipment includes: Special suspension with heavy-duty front and rear sway bars and 15-inch wheels □ GM steel-belted radial tires □ High-rise reclining front seats □ Custom vinyl padded steering wheel □ Rocket 350 V8 □ Turbo Hydra-matic transmission □ Variable-ratio power steering □ Front disc brakes □ Headlight dimmer switch on turn-signal lever □ New combination seat/shoulder belts (self-storing) for driver and right front passenger □ Hydraulic bumper systems, front and rear □ Special color-coordinated wheel discs.
Available equipment includes: Landau Roof for Salon coupe □ Power brakes □ Rocket 455 V8 □ Dual exhausts □ Rear window defogger □ Air conditioning.

1. The upholstery is velour—both front seats recline.
2. Choose this sedan or the coupe below—you get a great road car.
3. Built in the U.S.A.—in the grand touring tradition.

Cutlass Salon. Built in the grand touring tradition.

"When I tell people these are the most popular Oldsmobiles in history, they ask why. I say it's because Cutlass makes it easy for you to step up to an Olds. And what you get is a very classy car."

If you like a lot of luxury, step up to Cutlass Supreme Coupe—our little limousine. With opera windows, formal roofline and a very posh interior. If you like your Olds thriftier and sportier, Cutlass S is the step up for you. Either way, you get our famous Rocket V8, automatic transmission and power steering, standard—and a beautiful ride for the money.

2.

Cutlass S and Supreme standard equipment includes: Rocket 350 V8 □ Turbo Hydra-matic transmission □ Variable-ratio power steering □ Front disc brakes with wear indicators □ Inside hood release □ New vinyl-clad soft-grip steering wheel □ Power ventilation □ New plush-pile carpeting □ New combination shoulder & seat belts for driver and right front passenger □ Hydraulic bumper systems, front and rear.
Cutlass Supreme also includes: Choice of bucket seats or deluxe front seat with center armrest (coupe).
Available equipment includes: Landau padded vinyl roof (Supreme coupe) □ Swivel bucket seats (S coupe) □ Power brakes □ Rocket 455 V8 □ Rallye suspension package □ 4-4-2 trim package (S coupe) □ Air conditioning □ Wire wheel discs □ Super Stock wheels □ Vista Vent (coupes).

1. Supreme's a little limousine inside, too. New divided front seat is now available.
2. Bucket seats that swivel—available only in our Cutlass S.
3. You can order the Supreme coupe with this Landau Roof.

Cutlass Supreme...Cutlass S. Two great ways to get "Drivehappy."

"You'd be amazed at how many people buy an Omega just because it is an Oldsmobile. We say Omega's a compact with big-car thinking built into everything but the price."

Omega is more car than some smaller compacts. Its wheelbase is longer—111 inches. Its tread is wider. And you can feel the difference on the road. Solid. Smooth. Quiet. And roomy inside. Cut-pile carpeting, wet-look vinyl trim, a soft-grip steering wheel are standard. Omega S package and Rocket V8 are available, too. Coupe, hatchback or 4-door sedan—it's a lot of Olds for the money.

Omega standard equipment includes: 250-cu.-in. Six □ 3-speed synchromesh transmission □ Full-foam seats with deluxe upholsteries and wet-look vinyl trim □ Cut-pile carpeting □ Soft-grip steering wheel □ New combination shoulder and seat belts for driver and right front passenger □ New hydraulic bumper systems, front and rear □ Die-cast, chrome-plated grille □ Bright metal window and wheel-opening molding □ Space-saver spare tire (hatchback).
Available equipment includes: 3-stage Turbo Hydra-matic transmission □ Rocket 350 V8 □ Power steering □ Power brakes □ Bucket seats □ Sports console □ Camper-conversion tent (hatchback) □ Heavy-duty suspension components □ Dual sports mirrors □ Paint striping □ Super Stock III wheel □ GM steel-belted radial tires □ Omega S package.

1. The good stuff comes standard—including soft-grip steering wheel.
2. Like to camp? Order this tent with your hatchback.
3. Special suspension, sport wheels and mirrors—and more—in Omega's S package.

Omega. It's a lot of little Oldsmobile.

"Three good reasons your next wagon should be an Olds."

CUSTOM CRUISER. Real class of the wagon class, on a 127-inch wheelbase. Luxurious interior, pile carpeting, deep-foam seats. Many power features—and over 106 cubic feet of cargo space. Available with and without exterior paneling, and in 2- or 3-seat models.

VISTA-CRUISER. With outer paneling, a Vista Vent window in the roof, automatic transmission, power steering and power front disc brakes all standard, you've got a lot going for you already. Easy-lift tailgate. 116-inch wheelbase. Available with 2 or 3 seats; also with 60/40 divided front seat.

CUTLASS SUPREME CRUISER. Our new lowest priced wagon entry. But you still get a Rocket V8, automatic transmission, power steering and power front disc brakes standard—plus a 116-inch wheelbase, and 85 cubic feet of cargo space.

"One last word–about prices. There are still some people who think Oldsmobiles are priced higher than other cars–because they're Oldsmobiles. The truth is, we think you'll find Olds prices a pleasant surprise. It's another reason to come in and see why Oldsmobile is always a step ahead."

GM MARK OF EXCELLENCE

Oldsmobile reserves the right to make changes at any time, without notice, in prices, colors, materials, equipment, specifications and models, and also to discontinue models.

Choose Charge or Monthly Payments

With a Spiegel Charge Account, there is no finance charge. You simply pay the full cash sale price, plus shipping/handling charge and tax if any, within 25 days after your billing date.

You also have the option of paying on the famous Budget Power Monthly Payment Plan.

Under this plan you pay the time sales price, which is the cash sale price including shipping/handling charge and tax if any, plus the time price differential (monthly finance charge) and the charge for Spiegel Budget Power Group Insurance (if authorized) according to the monthly terms below. Payments are credited on the date of receipt and early payments or payments in excess of minimum payment due result in smaller finance charges. No finance charge will be added if the outstanding balance is paid within 25 days of your billing date.

Effective July 1, 1972 for all new and paid-up customers.

MINIMUM MONTHLY PAYMENT	$8	$9	$10	$11	$12	$13	$14	$15	$20	$25
BUYS UP TO	$160	$180	$200	$220	$240	$260	$280	$300	$400	$500

With the Monthly Payment plan, there is a FINANCE CHARGE computed by the Average Daily Balance method which is the sum of the amount of actual daily balances each day during the billing cycle divided by the number of days in the billing cycle; calaculated at a periodic rate of 1.65% monthly (or a minimum of 50¢ monthly on balances under $30.30) which is an ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE of 19.8%.

Shipping and tax, if any, Insurance coverage (if authorized) and the $1.00 handling charge on orders shipped direct will be included in your account.

Budget Power Group Insurance Available

PROPERTY INSURANCE for Direct and Accidental Loss or Damage to your purchases financed by Spiegel in the United States and Canada caused by: fire, lightning, inland marine perils, windstorm, cyclone, tornado, hail, explosion, vehicles, smoke, flood from rising waters and burglary is available to Spiegel customers from American Bankers Insurance Company of Florida, where not prohibited by law. Claims are paid by a credit to your account for the repair or replacement value of the damaged insured property or the unpaid balance (whichever is less). The cost of property insurance is only pennies a month, .0015 of outstanding monthly balance (which, for example, is only 15¢ for a balance of $100). This insurance may be obtained from any person of applicant's choice and purchase of this insurance is not a factor in approving the extension of credit. You may terminate this insurance at any time.

CREDIT LIFE INSURANCE. For pennies a month, .00165 of monthly balance (which for example is only 16½¢ for a balance of $100), you can be safeguarded by Spiegel Group Credit Insurance Policy, issued by Guaranty Life Insurance Company of America, which will pay your account balance up to $2,500 in the event of the death of you or your spouse. A certificate will be sent, describing all benefits in full. Purchase of this insurance is not a factor in approving the extension of credit, and the insurance can be terminated at any time.
